

Outline of a Sample Training Session for Teachers

The workshop has been designed to support schools to take an equality and human rights approach to interculturalism.

The workshop is divided into two parts. The first part consists of generic training for all schools, while the second includes a number of options from which schools may choose according to their situation and needs.

Part I

- Introduction
- Reflecting on the Diversity in our school
- Exploring 'identity'
- Awareness of inequality and discrimination - reflecting on our own experiences
- Elements of an Inclusive School

Part II

Exploring 2 of the following 4 topics:

Respecting, valuing and accommodating cultural and religious diversity

Positive experiences and a sense of belonging

Classroom practice to promote inclusion

Planning for the inclusive school

